

DEFINITION OF TERMS OF MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS:

Pattern II

“conducting difficult and complex transportation planning or research projects.”

difficult and complex includes:

- Overseeing large-scale projects
- Dealing with multiple and sometimes conflicting stakeholder needs
- Dealing with diverse geography (e.g., urban, natural, farmland)
- Dealing with the unique socio and political realities of different communities

Non-comprehensive list of transportation planning projects:

- Overseeing Program, Project Scope, Cost, Budget, and Schedules
- Managing modeling and analyses
- Develop necessary legislative related proposals
- Identify potential impacts of transportation related projects to mitigate potential risks
- Coordination with federal, State, regional, and local planning entities

Non-comprehensive list of transportation research projects:

- Transportation, Development, and Environmental planning
- Transportation policy development
- Managing transportation studies
- Shared economy studies
- Economic, land use, or development studies